

Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah University

Vice Chancellor's Message

Your worthiness and endurance will be on test, like that of the ship that leaves the shore for its first voyage across the ocean. The University will be your second home. Your classmates, fellow boarders and teachers will substitute your family. You will be the youngest members of the large BGSBU family and will, therefore, receive love and attention from all quarters.

It gives me immense pleasure to note that the process of admission for the session starting in July 2017 has been initiated with the publication of 13th Admission Prospectus. We shall soon have a fresh crop of young men and women charged with new hopes and aspirations. They will step into the shoes of their seniors who left the portals of the University to face the rough and tumble of life. For you who will join in their place we wish fruitful years of joy and learning to shape your destiny.

Many of you may be leaving home for first time. Your worthiness and endurance will be on test, like that of the ship that leaves the shore for its first voyage across the ocean. The University will be your second home. Your classmates, fellow boarders and teachers will substitute your family. You will be the youngest members of the large BGSBU family and will, therefore, receive love and attention from all quarters. All you need to do is to have confidence in yourself and repose trust in the University community.

We are endeavouring to make this University emerge as a centre of excellence in higher education. As such, efforts are being made to provide you rich library, state-of-art laboratories, uninterrupted internet connectivity, cozy boarding houses and above all excellent teaching faculty for whom teaching is a passion. In a little over a decade we have morphed the desolate stretch of hills and dales dotted with shrubby outgrowth into an institute of higher and technical education. This was possible through collective action. The University is already at top of the hill. Your inputs should take it to greater heights.

I wish you happy stay on the campus and success in realizing your dreams!

Javed Musarrat

M. Phil. and Doctoral Programmes

The Department has introduced M. Phil. and Ph. D programmes in Information Technology from this year. For details regarding admission to these programmes, refer page 89. Admission to M. Phil. and Ph. D Programmes will be notified subject to availability of seats.

Department of Mathematical Sciences

The Department offers three Masters programmes: M. Sc Mathematics (spl. Applied Mathematics) M. Sc Mathematics and M. Sc Mathematics (Evening Prog.). All these programmes are of two years duration and comprise 4 Semesters each. The postgraduate programme in M. Sc Mathematics (spl. Applied Mathematics) has been conceived with the aim of developing among students mathematical skills and acumen required in real life problems in the fields of medicine, agriculture, industry, trade, finance etc. It prepares them for jobs in banks, corporate sectors, industry etc. Under pressure from student community of the twin districts of Rajouri and Poonch, the Department initiated postgraduate programme in Mathematics also for two reasons. The first, that the curriculum of such course is more akin to the curriculum students pursue at the undergraduate level and second that it has huge job market locally. It largely prepares manpower for teaching and research.

The first two semesters of all post graduate programmes are common. In the third semester the students split into two streams. The fourth semester is devoted to execution of project work to train students in problem identification and solving.

The Department maintains rich library, raised with liberal funding by the National Board of Higher Mathematics, and a well equipped computer lab.

M. Phil. and Ph. D

The Department is running M. Phil. and Ph. D Programmes with a view to promote original thinking and creativity among students. Three batches of M.Phil have passed out so far. The procedure for admission and eligibility for admission to these programmes are given at page 89. The Department has also produced Doctoral theses in Applied Mathematics and more are in pipe line.

M.Sc. Physics

Physics is the natural science that involves the study of matter and its motion and behavior through space and time, along with related concepts such as energy and time. The boundaries of Physics are not rigidly defined. It intersects many interdisciplinary areas of research, such as biophysics and quantum chemistry. Physics makes significant contributions by advancing new technologies through theoretical breakthroughs. Understanding of electromagnetism and nuclear physics have led to the development of products, such as television, Computers, domestic appliances and nuclear weapons that have dramatically transformed modern-day society. Advances in thermodynamics led to industrialization and advances in mechanics inspired development of calculus.

In recognition of the role Physics has played and is likely to play in taking humankind forward United Nations named 2005 the World Year of Physics.

The University has launched Masters programme in Physics to provide avenues of higher studies in Physics to graduates churned out by colleges spread over the twin districts of Rajouri and Poonch in particular and the country as whole.

- Department of Mechanical Engineering
- Department of Electronics & Communication

B. Tech Programmes

- Department of Civil Engineering
- Department of Computer Engineering
- Department of Electronics & Communication Engineering
- Department of Electrical & Renewable Energy Engineering
- Department of Information Technology Engineering

The University has unique distinction of having established the first Centrally funded Polytechnic in collaboration with the J&K State Government. The need of Polytechnic was felt on account of non-availability of any such institute in the region at that time which could meet the great market demand for skilled lower level-end engineers. Many young school passouts who do not have the means or aptitude to pursue higher studies run from pillar to post in search of vocational training to acquire some skill for making a living. The skilled work force that the University Polytechnic is generating is meeting this demand.

The Polytechnic imparts technical education through Diploma courses in :

- Civil Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Electronics & Communication

Each Diploma course is 3 years, 6 Semesters programme during which training is provided through classroom lectures, laboratory work and workshop practice. Hands-on training is imparted to students during Summer training and execution of project work during the last two semesters.

Course Curriculum for Diploma Engineering

The Curriculum of first two Semesters is mostly common to all four Streams. Diversification starts in Semester III

B. Tech Programme

The University trains young men and women for careers in engineering. It offers learning environment to nurture talent and endeavors to promote innovation and develop professionalism in students. The School comprises five Engineering departments which are listed below. All these are striving to become Centres of excellence by initiating research and promoting consultancy services.

- Department of Civil Engineering
- Department of Computer Engineering
- Department of Electronics & Communication Engineering
- Department of Electrical and Renewable Energy Engineering
- Department of Information Technology Engineering

The B. Tech programmes of the University aim at taking advantage of the technology boom for which they generate trained manpower that will have ready job market. The purposefully employed young men and women will usher in economic transformation in the state. All B. Tech. programmes are approved by the All India Council of Technical Education (AICTE).

Besides the amenities available to all University students, in general the College offers some extra amenities to its students which include:

School Library: The library has a large collection of engineering books, journals and newspapers. A separate Book Bank has been established which provides prescribed text books to all students, those of the socially disadvantaged classes in particular.

Hi-Tech. Class rooms and Labs: Class rooms have latest infrastructure such as digital devices, OHP, etc. required for presentations. All laboratories are fully equipped for carrying out prescribed lab. work. The laboratories are modernized and at par with the expectations of the industry.

Industrial Relations: In order to focus on interaction with industry an exclusive cell, called the Industry Institute Partnership Cell, has been set up which is the focal point of sustained relationship with industry for:

- consultancy programmes,
- industry specific training programmes,
- mentorship programme for students by Industry experts, and
- guest lectures and industrial visits.

Career Counseling & Placement Cell: The College has a separate Training & Placement Cell that helps students to achieve their goals. The Cell functions in tandem with the Centre for Enhancement of Employability Skills of the University.

M. A. Islamic Studies

At the time the University was founded in 2005, five Schools of Studies were conceived of which School of Islamic Studies and Languages was one. For a little over a decade the School continued with a single Department, namely Department of Arabic which offers B.A. Arabic (Hons), M.A. Arabic, M.Phil and Ph.D programmes. Department of English was added in 2014. All along this period need was felt for Department of Islamic Studies from which the School gets its name. No course is as appropriate for this University as is of Islamic Studies.

The proposed Department will open avenues for passouts of nearly 10 Colleges of the State which teach Islamic Studies as an elective subject at under-graduate level. At present, postgraduate teaching in Islamic Studies is offered in the State only by Kashmir University.

The proposed programme will help learners in exploring Islam as religion, promoting study of Islamic culture and civilization besides imparting knowledge about social, political economic and cultural trends in Arab World and other Muslim Countries.

The areas of study of the programme will include history of Islam, Islam as religion, Muslim Philosophy, Comparative religion, Islamic finance and Islam in modern world.

M. A. Urdu

The University has School of Islamic Studies and Languages with Masters programmes in Arabic and English. Urdu is taught at undergraduate level to students of B. A. Arabic (Hons.) There was persistent demand for introduction of Masters Degree programme in Urdu in view of the fact that it is taught at undergraduate level in all Colleges of the twin districts of Rajouri and Poonch and the passouts have no avenues for pursuing it at postgraduate level. Moreover Urdu is the official language of Jammu & Kashmir State and the second most popular language of the country. Poonch and Rajouri has given birth to great Urdu scholars; Krishen Chander and Chiragh Hasain Hasrat, to name a few.

Masters degree in English

On account of its reach and richness English language has grown in its popularity and become the world language. Even countries averse to it in the past are attempting to gain proficiency in this language. With the world having shrunk and the job and trade markets becoming open to all irrespective of nationality more and more young Indians are moving out of the Country in pursuit of greener pastures. Proficiency in English provides them an edge over others. No wonder therefore, to find Indians occupying high positions in all spheres the World over.

Indians have lately taken to writing in English. Quite a few have earned distinction and their writings are in great demand.

In view of its richness as language and the help it provides in gaining employability the University has instituted full time post - graduate programme in English extending over two years and four semesters.

Masters in Education (M. Ed.)

Education is a continuous and dynamic process that extends from cradle to coffin. Everyday is a day of learning. It is a never ending process that humanizes humanity and makes life progressive, cultured and civilised. It helps in moulding thinking, reasoning, problem solving and creativity. Education is distinct from teaching in as much as it aims at all round development of personality. "It is the manifestation of divine perfection already existing in man". We require teachers who can build the character, strengthen the mind and expand the intellect of young learners. The two years Masters programme has been developed with the objective of training young men and women and making them capable of drawing out the best in the body, mind and spirit of the children they teach by touching their heart and arousing their abilities.

M. Phil. and Doctoral Programme

Research is an important component of the mandate of the School and the Centre for Biodiversity Studies, the other two being Teaching and Extension. The research programmes of the School have attracted liberal funding from different National agencies. Today, the School has over a dozen scholars involved in research in classical and modern biology. The faculty is well qualified. Besides being involved in their own research pursuits they supervise research leading to M.Phil. and Ph.D Degrees. The department has produced seven Ph. D. theses and five batches of M. Phil.
