

L. D. Arts College

Awarded 'A' Grade by NAAC

Prospectus 2017-18

Dr. Mahipatsinh D. Chavda
Principal

Former Dean, Faculty of Arts, Gujarat Uni., Ahmedabad
Executive / Academic council Member, Gujarat Uni., Ahmedabad
Co-ordinator, IGNOU-0901 & BAOU-0101

As the academic year 2017-18 begins, L.D. Arts College is once again abuzz with characteristic enthusiasm. This year heralds a year of change for us as we take our legacy of 80 years to an entirely new campus. The new verdant surroundings with state of the art infrastructure is sure to infuse a new energy. In the year that went by, L.D. Arts not only lived up to its benchmark of being a NAAC accredited 'A' Grade college but also made it to an enviable position in the National Institutional Ranking Framework. In the College Category, we secured a position within 150 to 200 on an All India basis. Among the Arts, Science, B.Ed and other colleges, we ranked among the first ten and were the only college from Gujarat to secure an NIRF ranking.

Looking back over the year that went by, I feel a tremendous sense of satisfaction. Once again, it has been a year suffused with vibrant energy and vigorous pursuit of academic as well as extracurricular activities. Outstanding performance by students continues to uphold the tradition of the College. As the Principal, I acknowledge with pride, the teamwork that has helped to maintain levels of excellence expected of an institute of this stature. My added responsibilities in several academic bodies reinforce my commitment to bring in ideas that will take us to newer levels of excellence. It is with this spirit that I continue as Member of the Senate, Gujarat University, Chairman of Board of Studies in Psychology, Executive Council Member and Academic Council Member.

Known for its high teaching standards, L. D. Arts College remains true to its motto of all round development of students through academics. Character building and service to society continue to top our priority list. This year too, the College conducted a number of seminars, workshops and various commemorative events like Geeta Jayanti and the Mahadev Desai Trophy. The NSS and NCC wings, the CWDC and the various Departments hosted a wide spectrum of academic and cultural activities that drew a diverse pool of talent. The CWDC successfully organized a National Conference on Gender Justice in which 200 delegates participated. Our students excelled once again at the Youth Festival and various inter – college events. This year too, the College organized several blood donation camps, tree plantation drives, and medical camps. In the sports front, the students excelled and won a number of trophies.

On the academic front the College lived up to its reputation. The UG level results were almost 88.95 % and the PG level results were 90.78 %. Once again, several reputed organizations visited the campus for interviews and offered placement to the students. In the month of January the campus was vibrant with the celebration of various days like Environment Day, Traditional Day, Cleanliness Day, Executive Day and Role Model Day. The enthusiasm of the faculty, students and alumni has contributed in making it another successful year for our College.

As yet another batch graduates with dreams and aspirations, I congratulate them and wish them all the very best. This year we publish the tenth issue of our College magazine 'Anjali'. I take this opportunity to extend my good wishes to all who have worked hard. I am confident that 2017-2018 will once again see L. D. Arts achieving new laurels and excelling in many ways.
