Vice-Chancellor's Message

Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, named after the great revolutionary Tamil Poet Bharathidasan, was established in 1982 with a clear vision, specific mission, well-defined objectives and to offer excellent educational service to the society. The university always strives hard to introduce the best and innovative practices regularly in its curriculum, teaching, learning and evaluation.

The Centre for Distance Education (CDE) was established in the year 1992 with a view to provide educational facility to those who aspire for higher education but could not attend regular colleges owing to either socio-economic constraints or employment status. The CDE started offering B.Ed. programme from 2006 with the approval of the National Council for Teacher Education, New Delhi, to facilitate primary and secondary school teachers who are already employed, to continue their education. The curriculum of the B.Ed. programme is designed to produce learner-friendly teachers who can try new innovative thinking and practices in their class rooms.
